

CALL FOR INCOMING MOBILITY STAFF (STT) ARRIVING IN UNIVERSIDAD DE SEVILLA (SPAIN) WITHIN THE EU ERASMUS PLUS KA107 FRAMEWORK FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-2022.

OBJECTIVE

Under 2018-1-ES01-KA107-049726 project, the Erasmus+ Mobility Programme for training staff offers Partner University teaching and non-teaching staff the opportunity to undertake a training visit to the Universidad de Sevilla (henceforth the US) during the first semester of the 2021-2022 academic year.

Staff taking part in this mobility programme will be given financial support, will be able to meet US staff in order to discuss subjects of inter-university collaboration exchange opinions and will be able to use US facilities at no extra cost. All of the training activities that are agreed on in the Mobility Agreement and which are performed satisfactorily will be recognised in their entirety by the Home University.

The Erasmus+ Programme promotes the exchange of experiences. The Programme offers staff the chance of widening their cultural outlook by travelling abroad, to know other Higher Education systems and to establish contacts with colleagues from other countries, thus contributing to international integration.

The Erasmus+ Mobility Programme for academic and administrative staff does not cover all of the beneficiary's extra expenses while s/he is abroad.

LENGTH OF STAY

As indicated in the Erasmus+ Programme Guide, the length of stay in the associate countries is 5 days,

FINANCING

The grant includes:

- The EU's contribution (individual support). The amount involved depends on the destination country and the number of actual days stayed in the Destination University, including the days spent travelling. The contribution for those coming to Spain is €160 per diem. The time that can be financed is 5 days' stay + 2 days of travel. (1 day outward, 1 day return), giving a maximum grant of €1,120.
- There is an additional contribution to cover travelling costs (travel support). This is calculated according to the table of distances below, as established by the Erasmus+ Programme:

Distance	Amount
Between 10 and 99 km	€20
Between 100 and 499 km	€180
Between 500 and 1999 km	€275
Between 2000 and 2999 km	€360
Between 3000 and 3999 km	€530
Between 4000 and 7999 km	€820
8,000 km or more	€1,500

The amount will be calculated taking into account the distance between the Home University's city and that of the US (Seville) on this website¹.

REQUIREMENTS

The participating staff must be contracted by one of the associate universities for the complete mobility period.

The training duties of Erasmus+ Mobility Programmes for academic and administrative staff participants will take place in regulated subjects and specific activities organised by the US.

In order to be accepted by the US, the participant must first be selected by his/her Home University.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The complete selection process carried out by the University of Sfax must fulfil the criteria of transparency and equal opportunities for all applicants.

Pre-selection criteria at the home university:

The home university will provide a pre-selection of candidates according to the following general criteria: The Erasmus⁺ mobilities are awarded following these criteria: 40% curriculum vitae, 40% language competences and 20% motivation letter.

² https://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/resources/documents/erasmus-programme-guide-2019_en

Candidates must:

- a) Be undertaking a training visit within the Erasmus+ Programme framework for the first time.
- b) Participate in joint programmes with the US.
- c) Staff from underprivileged backgrounds or challenging circumstance and who can accredit the same will be given priority.

OBLIGATIONS OF THE VISITING STAFF

Staff who have been accepted by the US for a stay within the KA107 project's framework must:

- Apply for the corresponding visa in their country of <http://www.us.es/estudios/index.html> origin and/or residence. To this end the US will provide staff nominated by partner universities with a letter of invitation.
- Make and pay for their own travel arrangements.
- Contract and pay for insurance that covers accidents, serious illness, civil liability and repatriation costs. Teachers will send the US a scanned copy of the policy at least 15 calendar days before their planned arrival date in order to guarantee that such requirements are fulfilled.
- Make arrangements and pay for their accommodation. Via its University Community Assistance Service (SACU), the US will provide the nominated staff with information, advice and support in looking for accommodation.
- Stay in the US for at least 5 working days if they want to be considered as Erasmus+ Mobility Programme training participants. Should this not be the case, the staff will have to return the grant (both the individual support and help with travel costs), with the exception of force majeure, duly justified by the staff in question.

PUBLICATION

Partner Universities will publish their call on their own websites and social media, as well as in the local and regional media in order for it to have the greatest possible social diffusion.
