

First Edition

Doctoral Day in Digital Sciences and Industrial Systems

ATTEND THE CURRENT AFFAIRS CONFERENCES AND BECOME READY TO FACE THE CHALLENGES OF TOMORROW!

A day entirely dedicated to the doctoral students of ENET'Com and ISGIS, a meeting that will represent a moment of exchange to enhance collaborations and create synergy among doctoral students from different laboratories and research units.

April 13, 2024

AT ENET'COM

To participate in the event and/or apply for the competition, please register before APRIL 1, 2024

<https://forms.gle/YpZ8yppCAiqGVGYPA>

A PLENARY CONFERENCE

"Connected Vehicles, Smart Mobility and Sustainability"

by Mr. Mohamed MOSBAH, Professor in Computer Science and Vice-President in charge of Digital Affairs at the Bordeaux Institute of Technology

A COMPETITION

Presentations of research work by doctoral students competing for very interesting prizes.

- My Thesis in 180 Seconds: for doctoral students enrolled in their third year and beyond.
- My Thesis in Poster: for doctoral students enrolled in their first and second year.
- Submit a one-page abstract of 500 words approximately.

CERTIFICATES AND CREDITS

- Participation is in-person and free of charge.
- Certificates of participation will be issued at the end of the day.
- 2 credits for doctoral students participating in the competition
- 0.5 credits for doctoral students who only attending the day.

